

PERIOPERATIVE NURSE FELLOWSHIP

The Perioperative Nurse Fellowship program is an opportunity for both new graduate and experienced RNs who are interested in a career in the operating room.

The fellowship begins with four weeks of didactic education both in the classroom and in simulation labs, followed by a five month clinical orientation, under the guidance of a skilled preceptor.

Through this program, RNs will learn how to function in the circulator and scrub nurse roles.